A. General

1. Introduction	1.1 The National Recovery Program Bureau (NRPB) has decided to create a Database of Contractors in order to have readily available information on qualified contractors to whom Requests for Quotations (RFQ) may be issued when procuring the various civil works contracts for Private Houses and/or Public Buildings Repairs that will be contracted in the framework of the Emergency Recovery Project I (ERP I). ERP I aims at repairing infrastructure damaged by Hurricane Irma. 1.2 The RFQ method is described in the “World Bank Procurement Regulations for IPF Borrowers, Revised on November 1, 2017”, which is accessible at: http://www.worldbank.org/en/projects-operations/products-and-services/brief/procurement-new-framework#SPD. Its more relevant paragraphs related to RFQ are copied below:  “Request for Quotations 6.7 A RFQ is a competitive method that is based on comparing price quotations from firms. This method may be more efficient than the more complex methods for procuring limited quantities of readily available off-the-shelf Goods or Non-consulting Services, standard specification commodities, or simple civil Works of small value.” “Annex XII -- 5. Requests for Quotations 5.1 Quotations should be obtained through advertisement or, when limited competition is justified, through a request for quotations (RFQ) to a limited number of firms. To ensure competition, the Borrower should request quotations normally from not fewer than three (3) firms. 5.2 Firms shall be given sufficient time to prepare and submit their quotations. RFQs shall include the description, quantity, delivery period, location of the Goods, Works and Non- consulting Services, including any installation requirements, as appropriate. The request shall also indicate the deadline for submission of quotations and specify that quotations may be submitted by letter, facsimile or by electronic means. 5.3 The evaluation of the quotations and contract award shall be carried out according to the criteria specified in the RFQ. The terms of the accepted quotation shall be incorporated in a contractually binding document. The Borrower shall keep records of all proceedings regarding RFQs.”

2. Scope of Application	2.1	In order to build the above mentioned Database, NRPB issues this Request for Information Document (“RfI Document”) to Contractors interested in being included in the Database.
	2.2	The Database will comprise the following two (2) areas of Contractors’ expertise: (i) Single Family Homes and (ii) Apartments (which includes other buildings to host persons).
	2.3	For the purposes of this RfI Document, Single Family Homes are only those houses having roofs made of Corrugated Galvulum Zinc, Aluzinc Sheet Roof or similar; while Apartments are those houses located in multistory buildings or which roofs are made of concrete.
	2.4	Also, one (1) apartment is deemed equivalent to 80 m2 of other buildings to host persons (i.e., hospitals, offices, schools, hotels, etc.), and one (1) “house” is considered equivalent to 80 m2 of apartments or any of those other buildings plus 80 m2 of roofs made of Corrugated Galvulum Zinc. Aluzinc Sheet Roof or similar in any kind of building.
	2.5	The Database will also contemplate the following three (3) Contractors’ sizes: (i) Small, (ii) Medium and (iii) Big. Contractors may have the opportunity to be awarded contracts up to the amounts indicated below, per each of the above-referred sizes. The contracting capacity is the aggregate annualized amount of the contracts a contractor included in the database may be awarded.
	2.6	The combination of the two (2) areas of Contractors’ expertise and the three (3) Contractors’ sizes results in the six (6) categories contemplated in the Database: (i) Small -- Single Family Homes, (ii) Small -- Apartments, (iii) Medium-- Single Family Homes, (iv) Medium -- Apartments, (v) Big -- Single Family Homes and (vi) Big -- Apartments.
